ST. LAWRENCE COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS, COMMITTEES, AND COUNCILS

St. Lawrence County would like to announce the affiliated Advisory Boards, Committees, and Councils that accept community participation on a vacancy basis. Volunteers are requested for the following:

- Agriculture and Farmland Protection Board
- Community Services Board
- Emergency Medical Services Advisory Board
- Environmental Management Council
- Fire Advisory Board
- Fish and Wildlife Management Board, Region 6
- Fisheries Advisory Board
- Forest Practice Board, Region 6
- Industrial Development Agency
- Information Technology Committee
- Local Early Intervention Coordinating Council
- Office for the Aging Advisory Council
- Planning Board
- Recreational Trails Advisory Board
- Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors
- Traffic Safety Board
- Workforce Investment Board
- Youth Advisory Board

A listing and brief summary of each committee, as well as any vacancies are available on the County website at: www.stlawco.org/Department/BoardofLegislators/Boards

Interested community members may apply by completing a Biographical Data Sheet (Biodata Sheet) linked to that portion of the website or by requesting one from the Board of Legislators Office at 379-2276. Upon completion, mail it to Board of Legislators' Office, Attn: Deputy Clerk, 48 Court Street, Canton, New York 13617. When notification of a vacancy occurs an announcement is posted to the website and all Biodata Sheets received will be presented to the Board of Legislators for review and selection. All Biodata Sheets submitted are kept on file for two years and reviewed each time there is a vacancy. The Board of Legislators encourages community participation and invites all interested citizens of St. Lawrence County to apply to the Advisory Board, Committee, or Council of choice.
